Chapter 1 by Mariah Porter

Once upon a time, There were three girls that had a secret that involved water. But, never told there secret to anyone and they just had started high school. They had always was afraid that if they go to school someone would discover there secret, But there mom and dad said u girls got to think postive.

Chapter 2 by Japhet

They really had to think positive and went on with their lives.

Their secrets were kept and despite few differences from normal girls at school, the three girls managed to gain new friends. At home though, their lives were different. With their home safely built upon coral rocks, the girls could freely dip on the cliff where their neighborhood friends await every evening.

The huge watchtower rang indicating evening arrived. The girls decided to meet Fili, Kili and Fin. They heard their calls. Their legs began to form scales...
